2. The Cabinet Sub-Committee / Group of Ministers (GoM) will examine and submit report to the Government on the following difficulties being faced in acquisition of assigned lands, which reportedly violated the provisions of the T.S. Assigned Lands (POT) Act, 1977.

1. The Purchasers of assigned lands, who purchased the said lands in violation of POT Act, are claiming compensation for their lands being acquired. If they are not paid, they are obstructing the developmental works.

2. Some of the District Collectors are resuming the assigned lands for violation of POT Act. When the purchasers are obstructing the works claiming compensation, they are writing to the Government for permission for payment of compensation, which is not permissible, as per the existing provisions of POT Act.
  3. A few of the District Collectors are paying compensation through acquisition agency/ Department to the purchasers of assigned lands in the name of encroachers, which is permissible as per the L.A Act. In these types of cases there is no agitation from any side.
  4. As per the provisions of POT Act, the purchasers of assigned lands can be reassigned the lands, which are in their possession, if they are otherwise eligible for assignment. Otherwise, the purchasers have to face criminal action against them.
3. The Special Chief Secretary to Government, Revenue Development shall be the convener of the above Committee.
4. The Committee shall prepare and come up with policy frame work and submit its report to Government, immediately.
